

CLIENT PRIVACY STATEMENT FAMILY LEGACY, INC.

The relationship between Family Legacy, Inc. and our clients is the most important asset of our firm. We strive to maintain your trust and confidence in our firm, an essential aspect of which is our commitment to protect your personal information to the best of our ability. We believe that all of our clients value their privacy, so we will not disclose your personal information to anyone unless it is required by law, at your direction or if necessary to provide you with our services. We have not and will not sell your personal information to anyone. All information will remain confidential.

In order to provide you with individualized service, we collect certain nonpublic personal information about you from information you provide on applications or other forms and information about your account transactions with us. Specifically, disclosures to companies as permitted by law include those necessary to service your account, such as providing account information to custodians. We do not disclose any nonpublic personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as permitted by law.

Family Legacy, Inc. will internally safeguard your nonpublic personal information. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal and/or state standards to guard your nonpublic personal information.
